City & Town Profiles

In each issue, Where to Retire spotlights four or five destinations that are attracting retirees, including undiscovered and low-cost havens. Every profile is chock-full of candid resident interviews and information on state and local taxes, cost of living, housing costs and health care. Readers across the country examine our profiles to find viable relocation options. Check out our Editorial Calendar to see if your city or town will be profiled soon.

Features

Where to Retire feature stories showcase a variety of regions great for retirees seeking specific lifestyles or opportunities. Past articles include “8 Enriching Towns for Art and Music Lovers,” “8 Fabulous Winter Wonderlands,” “Terrific Home Buys, Great Lifestyles” and “8 Enticing Towns for New Careers.” See our Editorial Calendar for upcoming features.

Discoveries

Our popular Discoveries department features news briefs on emerging trends, newly developed master-planned communities and timely topics of interest to relocating retirees.

Roads to Retirement

Exploratory road trips are part of the relocation research process. In this full-page department, we take our readers along a suggested route of discovery. We provide a map, a short description of what each town along our route has to offer and contact information for area Chambers of Commerce, CVBs, lodging and attractions to assist our readers as they explore the featured area.

Best Neighborhood

Where to Retire’s closing department, Best Neighborhood profiles an established master-planned community that suits active lifestyles with a variety of home styles and amenities.

Retirement Adviser

Editor Emeritus Mary Lu Abbott answers reader questions dealing with a wide range of retirement relocation issues.

Financial Consultant

Economic aspects are a big part of relocation decisions. In this department, we explore a wide range of financial issues that arise when relocating, including tax consequences, insurance coverage and the ins and outs of buying and selling homes.
